OBITUARY.

Major Henry B. Stark, one of West Pittston's most representative citizens, died Wednesday morning, at an early age, he was engaged in farming with his father, Paul Stark, who resided at Lackawanna. Relinquishing this line of business he located in New York, and during the Civil War he served in the Fifty-second regiment of Illinois volunteers. He participated in several battles, and at the time of his discharge held the rank of major. A short time since the deceased attended a reunion of the Stark family at Lake George, the ancestor of which can be definitely traced back in this country for 200 years.
